

UPC IS THE WINNER OF IEDC CASE STUDY COMPETITION IN ROMANIA

Bled/Bucharest, 18 May 2017: Five companies operating in Romania competed in the IEDC Case Study Competition. Dr. Nenad Filipović, Professor of General Management at IEDC-Bled School of Management - the oldest management school in Central and Eastern Europe, which has been connecting thousands of remarkable leaders all over the world for more than three decades, presided the jury and announced that the winning team of the IEDC Case Study Competition in Romania is the one from UPC.

Five teams representing some of the leading Romanian companies and organizations participated in a two-day IEDC Case Study Competition (CSC), organized by IEDC Alumni Club Romania. Today all teams (Studio Moderna Romania, Renania, Autonom, UPC, Mobexpert) presented their final solutions of the business case.

The jury members had a tough work, deciding which team prepared the best solution. “Case jury members thought that all groups showed a very good understanding of case issues,” says Dr. Filipović who led the jury.

The winning team said: “The competition was a very exciting experience! For us it was the biggest challenge to step out from the comfort zone and work with the colleagues that we have never worked before. It was important for us to identify the leader and other roles of the team and then it was easy to prepare the final presentation.”

The winning team was awarded with a prize of “one-day participation at IEDC seminar” and will try its strengths against the winning teams from Bulgaria, Croatia, Serbia and Slovenia at the Global IEDC Case Study Competition.

ABOUT IEDC CASE STUDY COMPETITION

As the oldest management school in Central and Eastern Europe, IEDC-Bled School of Management has been connecting thousands of remarkable leaders all over the world for more than three decades. Currently, IEDC has already 15 Alumni Clubs all over the world, also in Romania. The Case Study Competition is highly interactive 2-day contest organized by Alumni Clubs in the respective countries. In a limited time, cross-functional teams from different companies show their best talent, creativity, teamwork and endurance while analyzing and solving a real business case. Inspired by the success of the Croatian edition of IEDC Case Study Competition (CSC), launched in 2008 in order to demonstrate teaching methodology and benefits in developing young managers, the CSC became a traditional global event.

“The purpose of the CSC is to allow teams of young managers from Romanian companies to experience dealing with a challenging business situation and learning from it, which reflects the way management and leadership competences are developed in the Executive MBA program at IEDC – Bled School of Management” stresses Dr. Nenad Filipović, Professor of General Management and Director of Executive Education at the IEDC–Bled School of Management.

After the case study competition, Dr. Filipović hold the lecture “External forces driving our businesses and what they mean for our strategies” for Romanian managers.

Additional information:

Iva Eibel, IEDC-Bled School of Management, T: + 386 4 57 92 524, E: iva.eibel@iedc.si